

THE KISS AND THE LONGING OF THE SOUL
A WORKSHOP WITH MARILYN MARSHALL, MA, LPC
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 9, 2010
10 AM - 1 PM
$35 MEMBERS; $45 NONMEMBERS
3 CEUS

The prince kisses Sleeping Beauty and she awakens; Psyche seduces Eros with kisses to get her way; Vasalisa warns the prince not to kiss his sister, but he does and forgets Vasalisa; Gawain kisses the loathly lady and transforms her into a beautiful maiden; the Babylonian gods Anshar and Marduk kiss before battle and courage is born. Judas kisses in betrayal, Job in faithfulness, Mary Magdalene in love, and Jesus, in a Gnostic Gospel, explains the kiss as conception. As archetypal images, these kisses of fairy tale and myth have a dynamic nature – they move psychic energy backward to an old way of being or forward to a new adaptation. With your kisses, you too are being moved. Imbued with emotion, the numinous quality of the kiss translates, in modern language, as “chemistry” and speaks of the desire, the longing of the soul.

In this workshop, we will explore the kiss and its meaning through fairy tale and myth and look at its modern image in literature, movies, dreams, and personal experience. A minimum of six participants is required to hold the workshop, so if you’re planning to attend, please e-mail us at info@jungneworleans.org or send in the coupon below to reserve your spot.

Marilyn Marshall is a Jungian analyst and licensed professional counselor in private practice in New Orleans. She is a 2009 diplomate of the Inter-Regional Society of Jungian Analysts.
